

Even though my home phone number is "unlisted" I have still received bothersome nusiance calls. A NO CAll list should be that. Any unwanted calls should not be allowed. If I want someone to call me from a business I can and will give them my number if nescessary. Otherwise privacy should prevail over business.